Norman Kenyon Joins Business Only Broadband As National Accounts Executive

Will work within the company's New York Metro region

Westmont, IL – March 10, 2008 – Business Only Broadband (BOB), a carrier-class wireless provider, announced today that Norman Kenyon has joined the company as national accounts executive. Kenyon will be responsible for sales in the New York Metro area, with a focus on large enterprise clients and the financial sector.

Kenyon joins BOB after a highly successful 10 plus year career as an IT industry executive. Most recently, he was the northeast regional converged IP specialist for Global Crossing. He was responsible for transforming the company's highly successful sales force from a focus on wholesale and legacy products to a highly skilled, enterprise-centric team, selling converged, IP-based solutions.

“With the opening of our New York City office in January, Norm is a great addition to our team as we expand into this market,” said Alan Rosenberg, president of BOB's New York City office. “His results-driven experience in the IP market will serve us well.”

Kenyon worked at Global Crossing from 2004 through 2007 and supported sales forces in Boston, New York, New Jersey, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Washington, D.C. He was successful in selling into a broad range of industries, including finance, pharmaceuticals, manufacturing and technology.
